

SUFFRAGAN BISHOP HOBART L. GREGG, 80, transitioned from this life on Tuesday, May 28, 2013. Born Oct. 14, 1932, in Connersville, Ind., he was the son of the late Hobart M. Gregg and Laura B. Gregg. Bishop Gregg retired from the Fort Wayne Community Schools as Principal. He also served in the United States Army receiving an honorable discharge. Pastor Gregg was a Suffragan Bishop with the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World and was founder and pastor of the Kings Chapel Assembly until retiring in 2010. Surviving are his loving wife of over 50 years, Mary Ann Oliver Gregg; sons, Kevin (Lisa) Gregg and Damon Gregg; daughters, Deborah (Anthony) Kirkland, Julie (Juan) Sanchez and A. Roxanne Gregg; 14 grandchildren; 25 great-grandchildren; one sister, Armenta Bundrant; and the King's Chapel Assembly family. He was also preceded in death by grandson, Kevin M. Gregg II. A Homegoing Celebration is 11 a.m. Monday, June 3, 2013, at Kings Chapel Assembly, 703 E. Jefferson, Fort Wayne, with calling one hour prior. Bishop Charles Sims officiating. Calling also from 5 to 7 p.m. Sunday, June 2, 2013, at the church. Burial in Highland Cemetery, 2403 East Wallen Road, Fort Wayne. Services entrusted to Ellis Mortuary, 1503 Columbia Ave., Indianapolis. View services live @ www.kingschapelassembly.com and send condolences to www.ellismortuary.com