

Daniel Omokhoje Daudu

Daniel Omokhoje Daudu was born October 22, 1989 in Lagos Nigeria to the family of HRH Oba Lawani and Late Chief Mrs Roseline Daudu. He has 8 other siblings, 4 nephews and 2 nieces.

He attended his primary education and part of his secondary school in Lagos before transferring to Brehm Preparatory School on a scholarship where he completed his secondary education and then gaining an athletic scholarship to the University of Indianapolis where he graduated with Major in Marketing.

Daniel was not just an athletic individual, he was smart, competitive and highly focused person with a great heart for people. Everywhere he went, Daniel made sure he looked out for everyone, always had a smile on his face and he saw the best in everyone. You never thought he couldn't achieve what he set out to achieve and I believe that's why we are all here today.

As his family, we saw God from a different light in Daniel's life as he was a born-again Christian who believed and loved God and we will forever miss him because he deposited himself in every one of us his family members and all the people he came in contact with. Daniel was a true expression of God's presence and love. He travelled a long way, strived to accomplish all he was able to accomplish, never gave up on his dreams, fought through the heat and cold to get to where he got and that for him and us all will never be erased forever. Daniel left an indelible mark in all our hearts.

As we celebrate and remember him, paying him our last respect, knowing he's in heaven with our mum, the thought of him will always bring joy to us that he was our son, brother uncle and friend.

Celebration services will be held on Friday, December 1, 2017 at 11:00am at University of Indianapolis, Nicoson Hall, 1400 E. Hanna Ave, with visitation there from 9:00am until service time. Burial will be at New Crown Cemetery. Arrangements entrusted to Ellis Mortuary, View live services www.glvcsn.com/uindy
