

Thomas Lebron Jackson

62, Indianapolis, went to sleep in Jesus on January 2, 2017. He received his bachelors degree from Morehouse College and retired from American United Life. He was employed with GE Solutions until his death.

Family and friends will gather on Saturday, January 7, 2017 with a viewing from 9:00a.m. to 11:00a.m. and service at 11:00a.m. at Mt Zion Apostolic Church, 4900 E. 38th St.

He is survived by his loving wife, Kenover A. Jackson; daughters, Victoria (Brian) Dinkins, Jocelyn Jackson; two granddaughters, Olivia and Addison Dinkins; brother, Herman Jackson; sisters, Ada Pearl Patterson, and Romell Dawson. Entombment will be in Washington Park North. Final arrangements have been entrusted to Ellis Mortuary.