

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:*

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

*For thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

*Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;*

Thou anointest my head with oil;

My cup runneth over.

*Surely goodness and mercy
shall follow me all the days of my life:*

Her Life Remembered

DIETRA LYNN MARLOWE was born to Rufus Alexander and Beverly Tyler on August 12, 1965 in Indianapolis, Indiana. She graduated from Indianapolis Public Schools, and Arlington High School in 1983.

In High School, she was an avid runner. She received many blue ribbons and won Gold at the 1981 Peace Games in Ontario, Canada.

DIETRA was previously employed with the State of Indiana and was employed with Indianapolis Public Schools as an Executive Assistant for Dr. Giles, Dr. Gillenwater and other IPS administrative staff until her early retirement.

DIETRA accepted Jesus at the age of sixteen. She sang in the Bishops Choir at Christ Temple and later sang on the Praise and Worship Team at New Wineskin Ministries.

The Lord called Dietra home on Saturday, November 9, 2013 while surrounded by her loved ones. Even in her condition, she maintained her lovely spirit and sense of humor. She believed in and trusted the Lord. She is walking again! Hallelujah! Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

DIETRA was preceded in death by her father Rufus Alexander. She leaves to cherish her memory, a faithful and loving husband of 10 years, Richard Marlowe; daughters, Kaylyn and Kalese Fisher; stepdaughter, Princess Drake; mother, Beverly Tyler; brother, Raymond Bates; sister, Shelaine Yamobi; and a host of relatives and friends.
