

A Brief Sketch of Life

ORLANDO WALKER was born to Charles A. Walker and Mary L. Walker on October 31, 1956 in Richmond, Indiana.

After moving to Indianapolis, Orlando began attending the Indianapolis Public School system including Crispus Attuck High School. He particularly loved fishing, hunting and playing the harmonica and his guitar.

ORLANDO was employed by his long time friend, Edward Killebrew and Sons Construction for many years.

He was a member of Believers in Christ Church under the leadership of Pastor Shirley Outlaw. He would talk about his walk with the Lord and his never ending love. When he would walk in Church, he would be dressed so clean from head to toe.

ORLANDO WALKER departed this life on Thursday, September 21, 2017 at the age of 60 years old. He was preceded in death by his father, Charles A. Walker; sisters, Jacqueline S. Walker, Nancy J. Flannigan and Rita Motley.

He leaves to cherish his fond memory, mother, Mary L. Walker; brothers, Ronald (Annette) Adams, Ezzard Charles Walker, Carlos Walker, Rev. Malachi (Dawn) Walker and Lee Anthony (Renee) Walker; sisters, Teresa Walker-Ortiz and Mary Walker; a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and extended family.
